

RTI for CBSE 10th & 12th result correction

One-line answer: If your CBSE Class 10 or 12 result has any error, you have the legal right to a photocopy of your evaluated answer-sheet under CBSE v Aditya Bandopadhyay (Supreme Court 2011). File an RTI to CPIO, CBSE.

What you can ask for

- Photocopy of your evaluated answer-sheet (per the SC ruling).
- Marking scheme + evaluator's marks distribution.
- Re-evaluation/re-verification record.
- Reasons for any delay.

Address

CPIO, Central Board of Secondary Education, "Shiksha Sadan", 17 Rouse Avenue, New Delhi - 110002. Or online via rtionline.gov.in.

Cost

- RTI application fee: ₹10
- Photocopy of answer-sheet: ~₹500/subject (CBSE schedule rate)

Cite the Supreme Court ruling

In your RTI, write:

"I rely on the Hon'ble Supreme Court's judgment in CBSE v Aditya Bandopadhyay (2011) 8 SCC 497 which settled that examining bodies must provide evaluated answer-sheets to candidates."

Read the full guide

righttoinformation.wiki/rti-for-cbse-result-correction

RTI Wiki — citizen-first legal content. April 2026. Forward to every CBSE parent group you're in.

Right to Information Wiki

The working reference for India's Right to Information Act, 2005.

Read online

<https://righttoinformation.wiki/share/rti-for-cbse-result-correction>

Main website

<https://righttoinformation.wiki/>

Last updated

2026/04/28 18:22